MARY MARTHA SEWING GROUP

At this time the Ladies have a large supply of Lap Robes, Blankets and Baby Blankets. We would like to ask for help in delivering these to Nursing Homes; Shut-in's; Oaks of Righteousness; Assisted Living Homes and Hospitals. These places accept these with a happy heart. Please let Dory, Carol, Diane and Mary know if you would be willing to deliver them.

FROM PASTOR FLORY

Living As Pilgrims

Our society tells us to live for today. The words from a poster, "Forget the PAST; Don't worry about the future; Live TODAY!" Captures our society's encouragement to live for the moment with gusto because there is no tomorrow. In contrast, we as God's people, are encouraged to live with an eternal perspective. The Apostle Paul encourages us to set our minds on this above, not on earthly things (Colossians 3:2). We are told that God "has put eternity into (our) hearts" (Ecclesiastes 3:11). Through faith, we live our lives knowing that heaven is our true home. According to the writer of Hebrews, we are aliens and strangers on this earth (11:13). In Philippians 3:20, Paul tells us that we are citizens of heaven not earth.

In order for us to be citizens of heaven, alien, strangers and pilgrims on this earth, we can't allow the accumulation of things to distract us from our relationship with Jesus. As God's people, we can have and enjoy comfortable homes and cars, but we need to be careful that we don't become too attached to the blessings God gives us. We are to possess our possessions rather than let our possessions possess us. We must be on guard not to let anything demand so much of our time, energy, and money that the relationships we have with the Lord will suffer.

The Words of Martin Luther encourage us not to become attached to the things of this world. He writes, "Therefore we must use all these things upon earth in no other way than as a guest who travels through the land and comes to a hotel where he must lodge overnight. He takes only food and lodging from the host, and he says not that the property of the host belongs to him. Just so should we treat our temporal, as if they are not ours, and enjoy them only so much of them as we need to nourish the body and then help our neighbors with the balance. Thus the life of the Christian is only a lodging for the night, since we must journey on to heaven, where our Father is.

With the same indifference to material things, Jesus sent out 72 disciples into the harvest field (Luke 10:1-12). In their journey they resembled pilgrims. For pilgrims, material possessions are valuable only as they help their mission. A pilgrim will not carry a lot of things around because that would slow them down. A pilgrim chooses possessions rather carefully so as to be able to travel lightly. If he foolishly accumulates things, he will find it more difficult to reach his destination.

With God's help, we can put our trust in the Lord and not in our possessions, and we can live as pilgrims here on this earth, ever looking forward to the eternity God has placed in our hearts.

Blessings, Pastor Flory
